Dear Sir

I mentioned to the President the case of the aliens (Enemies) in Phila who were to go to Europe - I understood from him that it would be proper to ascertain that there was nothing personally objectionable to them - and that a compliance with this wish would not lead to application, too numerous - there are points on which you must decide - on your request we shall presume be authorized to make out the Passports & present them impossible for we are all working as hard as we can to prepare papers for Congress - Most Respectfully

The President & the Secy of State are both of opinion as to Barclay & Mr Robertson derive their powers from the Transport Board that you should address letters to that Board stating the reasons which led to the course taken by their Govt respecting the ~~other~~ enemy & the motives of them

These letters might then be sent by the Secy of State to the Foreign Office in London accompanied by a declaration of the readiness of their Govt to receive another agent & return the Papers you sent here as I presume you will want them - Our Despatch Vessel is ready; but will be detained for your Letters - Most Respectfully

Dear Sir

I stated to the President the case of old Barclay - after reading his note respecting - he seemed to think that it was not to be an rule to obtain go in the Swedish Vessel as we could have no control over him after he had left our waters - He observed however that you or Mr Monroe might see some objection which did not occur to him - the Papers were sent to Mr Monroe as he signed the Passport I take it for:

granted that he consents - It will therefore remain for you to decide on sending it or withholding it if you have reasons for doing so. We have written to the Marshal & Collector at Newport on the presumption that Lord Barclay will go in the Swedish vessel should she be otherwise please let me know that the letter may be stopt.

respecting do Jeffery who wishes to go in the Cartel to Dephof State

9th Decr 1813-

Sir

I had expected that Mr Wilkes in Treaty of Mr Jeffery would have taken measures with you relative to the Castle in which Mr Jeffery wishes to sail to England.
I referred Mr Jeffery to you for that purpose and had concluded that he had made arrang-ments with you to that effect before he left London - my Idea was that the Capt, the Commander and every other circumstance should be of a character entitled to the confidence of the Govt; but that in securing those objects all possible accommodation should be given to Mr Jeffery and Family as well for their comfort as to lessen his expence.

The conveyance of Letters was one of those incidents to the measure to which our attention had been drawn, for the twofold purpose above mentioned and I suggested that others might occur to them which would be brought under consideration thro you, with the same view, such as the conveyance of Prisoners and Passengers especially the subjects of neutral Powers. If these Gentlemen have adopted an idea of greater latitude, they have mistaken the views of the Government.
I hope they have not or in any event that the affair is in that state to admit the controul of the whole Business and immediate agency of course on your part with the most perfect delicacy towards them. It may perhaps be useful that we should confer on this subject.

for which purpose I shall be happy to see you whenever it may be convenient for you to call.

The gentleman who will present you this, Mr Sandos, a foreigner, is desirous of going to England, with his lady, and it is an object of interest to accomodate him, if to be done consistently with the rules established, as to the intercourse between the two countries & the stat of exchange, and of prisoners in England. It may for example be necessary, or useful, to send some of their prisoners, exchanged or about to be exchanged to England rather than to Halifax, & to bring some of ours home by the same opportunity. If there exists a sufficient motive for sending a Cartel to Engd it is wished to attend this gentleman to sail in it. I will thank you for your ideas on this subject.

From information I have received to day, I am induced to believe the only objection to complying with the request of Mr Kirby, made to you, arises from a doubt whether the British Subjects who wish to embark in his Vessel are of that description who can with propriety be permitted to leave the Country. To remove this doubt they had better lay such proofs before the Marshal at New York as will enable him to make a correct statement of their several cases. Passports will then be given to such of them as are of the description above alluded to - and if the number of Those is sufficient to justify the measure a Flag will be granted to Mr Kirby's Vessel to convey them to England -

wishes to have the command of a Cartel ——

Washingtn Jany 2d 1815

Sir

In the month of April 1813. I had the Honor of an appointment as Sailing Master in the U.S. Navy and was ordered by the Department to report myself to the Flag Officer at Norfolk that in the event of a Vacancy for the Command of a Cartel, or Flag I might then receive an appointment, According thereto, did report myself to General Mason; but no arrangements occurring; In June following I was ordered to the Flotilla Service in Chesapeake there I remained until within a few Weeks past — for four Months of the Period; I had Command of the Rover Brig, when when we took and upwards of 50 British prisoners. since that, the Number Landed is considerably Augmented —

Without assuming a position that might have the remotest appearance of obtruding an Opinion, I respectfully only suggest a Fact; If policy and propriety admits the measure that these then could be sent either to Bermuda or Barbados And an Equivalent could be brought back for them, the intended Arrogant Squadron might receive a Ratio of our unfortunate brave fellows, now Suffering in British prison Ships.

Permit me Sir to solicit in Such an event your favorable opinion to have the Command — I can have a Vessel fitted and ready for Sea, in three weeks from now, and the transportation of the persons shall cost the U.States (If the establishment is only Local) not exceeding the lowest Sum which has been paid on Such Occasions — Your auspices with Genl Mason; may and no doubt will facilitate the wish of him who is most truly and Respectfully Your Obedient & obliged Sert

May 3. 1814

Sir,

Captn Brewer has handed me your letter of yesterday. There is certainly great analogy, as you observe, in the cases of seamen taken by British cruzers from neutral and licensed vessels, since the War, and discharged without parole in the West India Islands; and those taken and discharged previous to the War, under the orders in Council. The latter have been brought to the United States, under the law providing for destitute seamen, and paid for at the rate of 10 dollars a man, even from Europe, and there does not appear to be any circumstance in Captn Brewers case, which can with propriety place him on a better footing, with respect to the seamen discharged without parole by British cruzers, and brought by him from the West Indies. His account will therefore be settled by this Department.

Sir

Knowing that there are a great number of Valuable American Seamen at this time in the different West India Islands, and who are from various causes in wretched and distressed situations, and who cannot possibly return to their homes in any other way than through the medium of a Cartel, owing to the difficulty at all times of getting onboard of Neutral Ships, and in many instances if not in all of the want of funds. I am Knowing also from personal observation, that they are compelled by poverty, and cant, to enter into the British Navy, a Service which they abhor, I have been induced to Solicit your permission to go out to Barbadoes & Jamaica for the purpose of Collecting and bringing home all those unfortunate men. Altho as yet I have not received any Payments for those I brought home in the Ship "Rising States", yet I feel a confidence in the justice and good intentions of the government of my Country and expect upon my return if I obtain your orders to go, shall be fully complied with.

reporting a flag of truce to Mr Cuicier & others for the Enemy -

31. July 1813.

Dear Sir

a Mr Curtis, owner of a privateer lately ~~taken~~ by the British at Ocracoke in N. Carolina, has a hope of ransoming her, for a small price compared with her value.
I send you his letter in reply of his views. The President is disposed to afford him the op= =portunity desired by a flag to the commod.
or of the enemy's squadron.

a Mr Mossieur, of Baltimore, is de =sirous of attending him, to ask of the ad= =miral, a passport for a vessel, to take some French people, formerly of St Do =mingo, to France, the vessel to go in ballast. Have you any business with the admiral, to justify on public grounds the sending a flag to the enemy's squad= from, as it is unpleasant to do it, for such purposes as these only? You have had, by your conversations, & communications with Col. Bradley, an opportunity of knowing in what light these applications are viewed by the British adm[n]., & the intercourse we expect to give them ~~I will thank~~ you to inform me, whether, in case there be no instructions, on the part of the gov[t]., to induce such a measure, it is probable that the sending a ~~fleet~~ fly for such purposes would be well received?

With real regard & sincerely yours,

Secy of State respecting the Ship Robert Burns which is permitted to go to England as a Cartel - &c &c

June 4. 1813

Department of State,

June 4. 1813.

Sir,

The President has granted permission for the Ship Robert Burns, capt. Thomas Payen, of the burthen of 347 tons, to proceed from New-York to Liverpool, as a cartel. A passport has been furnished for the vessel, which expresses that she is to convey prisoners of war to and from her port of destination, and to bring home the family of Mr. John Richardson, of New-York. The latter, however, is the practicable object of her sailing, and is the special cause of the permission. With respect to letters to go by her, I have directed that they

John Mason, Esq.

Should

should be submitted to the rigorous inspection of the marshal of the district, of which you can advise him. Should there be any prisoners in custody for conveyance to England, it will be for you to prescribe the rule of conduct to the Marshal with respect to their delivery.

The Robert Burns will clear out under certain Regulations communicated to the Collector of the Customs on the 1st of August 1812, not pertinent to the functions of the Commissary General of prisoners of war, and therefore not transferred to him.

I have the honor to remain,

Dear Sir

I this stated that the Ship Millwood has arrived at New York with Coal from the Chesapeake and that She had a British License - This being considered a violation of Law, informa-tion has been lodged against her. and the owners of the Vessel have declared that they have the sanction of the Govt. The Secretary of State does not recollect that he has ever given such a sanction - Perhaps this may be the Coal intended for the Hospital at Newfoundland for which Colo Barclay gave a Passport that Paper was struck with fire and I am directed to enquire what steps were taken respecting it. The Secretary does not distinctly recollect and this important to know as the Vessel is liable to seizure

The Hon.ble Albert Gallatin Esquire

Secretary of the Treasury of the United States.

Sir,

A number of British Subjects here having made enquiry for a passage to England and under stanting as far as we can learn that the american Government has no objections to their proceeding such a Voyage in case they can find one, expeditiously, we as Owners of the american ship St. George Washington, a coppered Vessel of about 325. Tons burthen, well calculated for such a purpose should be well pleased, if our information as to the disposition of the Government be correct, to fit her up for a Port in England for the purpose of carrying Passengers and bringing back american Citizens now in that Country, who from the circumstance of war having taken place may be anxious to find a safe opportunity of returning to their own.

We presume therefore to solicit a permission for said Vessel to proceed to a Port in England with Passengers and to return in the same manner, engaging in case it is being granted to give satisfactory security for adhering strictly to the object we state and to any Regulations prescribed by the Government; and as we are aware that the safety of our own Citizens in returning can only be ensured by a protection from the British Secretary of Legation in this Country we cannot expect a Clearance without such a Document from him to guarantee her from Capture or detention like her return to this port - We have however every reason to believe that we should be able to obtain an ample passport from him - and should it appear to You as it does to us, that the projected Voyage may be of mutual advantage to the Citizens and subjects of the respective Nations, we venture to hope the permission of our own Government for the prosecution of it.

We believe that the application we have made is properly addressed to Your department but if our request ought to have been made to the Secretary of State we claim Your indulgence for presuming so far as to request You to lay it before Mr. Monroe - We have no doubt of being able to satisfy any enquiries that may be deemed requisite as to our Character ter and standing as american Citizens, and if as we presume our Relation's Mr. Sam. H. Smith has the honour of your acquaintance he would we believe be willing to afford you satisfac-

Sir,

Nothing but the extreme exigency of my case induces me to be thus troubling— In compliance with your favor of the 5th Inst. I send an account as soon as I could obtain them and with as much accuracy as was possible. the list and discription of my passengers for the Ship Medora for the West Indies. Trusting in your assurance that my application would be immediately attended to, I proceeded in the procuring the outfits of my vessel and shipping hands ready for sailing on that morrow, but I have not received them I shall Instruct your attention to that subject— as my daily expences are very heavy— and I am detained solely for want of them— I wrote also to the Secretary on the 19th inloosing another account of particular list, fearing that I left something of which I was not aware, might be wanting— If this should be the case, could not the Passports be sent on, leaving to the Marshals to fill up any omissions or correct any errors which may have taken place in my application? I have my apprehensions that something may be wrong— I have been informed that in some cases applications for Cards have been made thro the British Agent here—When I spoke with Mr Graham, he did not mention that this was necessary— Therefore did not think proper that any should interfere

For the last week I have been anxiously waiting for the passports of the Cartel Ship Pennsylvania but have been disappointed — A moments consideration of the subject — the situation in which the Ships Passengers are placed, will I am sure induce you to grant the passports as soon as possible — the crew have now been shipped a week, and their wages occasion me great expence, the fresh provisions we are all provided, and much will be required, and of course a necessity of providing more — most of the steerage passengers are poor persons returning to their native country without money and are now subsisting on charity, and all the Passengers have now been here a long time, subject to unexpected expence and detention considering my situation, may I ask it of you to permit by return of mail the necessary papers to come on, that the Ship may proceed to sea

The Ship Minerva myself master being taken up as a Cartel for the purpose of carrying British subjects to England on the 1st of October; and on the 1st of November the Ship was ready for Sea. The description of the Persons of the Passengers were given to Mr Moore the British Agent at this place to forward to Washington for the Passports - which we expected in the course of 8 or 10 days — The Ship is lying at a heavy expense which falls peculiarly heavy on me (being part owner) - The Passengers are very uneasy and a report is in circulation that the Ship is detained by Government for the purpose of bearing dispatches or - to wait until the Election of President is over - which if such be the case would be a very great expense to the concern as all the Provisions &c are on board -

I would esteem it a particular favor if you would have the goodness to inform me whether the Ship is so detained and at what time the Passports will be sent on, in order that I can make arrangements accordingly.

Department of State,

Nov.r 10th. 1812.

Sir, I have duly received your letter of the 5th inst. and in answer to a part of it have to state to you, that the intention of the government in relation to Cartels is, that none should be permitted to sail from any port of the United States without a special passport from the Secretary of State; and it was in pursuance of this intention that the President had forborne to authorise me, as you may observe on reference to your instructions, to direct the Collectors of the Customs to grant protections to vessels sailing as Cartels either with prisoners of war, or with British subjects who are not of that description. As their determination has undergone no change since, I have to request you

From the evidence submitted these vessels were clearly entitled to passports under the said act of the 6th of July, and therefore any further proceedings were suspended until the pleasure of the government was known. Sir, Genl.

By a letter from the American agent in London, under date of the 20th of November last, it appears that Mr. Bearley engaged the Ship William & Eliza of New Bedford, Cornelius S. Howland master, to convey to the United States one Hundred American Seamen, the provisions and Stores for whom were to have been furnished by Mr. Bearley; the engagement to commence on the 18th of October 1812. Owing to some unforeseen Obstacles, interposed by the British Government, the Ship was detained for about one month beyond that period, when captain Howland, fearful of dissatisfaction on on the part of his owners, sailed for the United States without the seamen, but with the concurrence of Mr. Beasley. For the damage accruing from the failure of the contract you now claim compensation.

In this there is no apparent objection, taking as the rule of liquidation the usual daily allowance for demurrage for thirty days, detention, and leaving open for equitable consideration any circumstance, which you may communicate in an authentic form relative to the loss of a return cargo in consequence of the agreement entered into by the American agent. Upon this ground you can state your claim in proper form, and forward it to the department of State.

To the President of the United States

Your Petitioner having under his care five children from one of the British West Indies islands being desirous to return them to their parents, made application, before the declaration of War, for permission to send out a vessel for the purpose of sending them as well as other foreigners, who are here under unpleasant circumstances, to their respective homes— This application was not then granted, Your Petitioner now supposing that the may not exist the same reasons for refusing to grant such previliges— is encouraged to pray that the President will grant a Flag of truce to the Ship Alledora for the sole purpose of bringing passengers to the British West Indias islands—

By a letter received yesterday from Mr Smith for a Ship of War to proceed from Hal Fax to the Islands not mentioned, nor the Ships name. but, he supposes, that he can obtain with Mr Rose, a Merchant of Hal Fax. He intimated he was desirous that such permission might be obtained for a Vessel to proceed as a Flag. and as no particular conveyance had yet been selected. the Vessels name and Masters might be left Blank for the Admiral the Port to fill up. when they had agreed on the Vessel they intended go in — There are two considerations to induce my Lords to grant this mode of conveyance. one of which is, the safety it would give to their persons — the other it would avoid the circuitous route they must otherwise

Sir

I have to the purport of the Embargo Law of the 17th last March purchased a Brig that is not quite fitted for the purpose of returning to Sweden my Country; but on enquiring at the Custom-house find that the Collector, since the passage of the Embargo Law, conceives that he is not warranted in granting a clearance as there is nothing provisionary embracing in a case of this kind, but rather that the first section that Law would prevent my departure. Conceiving my case to be peculiarly hard and distressing, as every requisite of the Law will be fully complied with. I beg the same may be laid before the President of the United States, and if not irreconsistant with the Laws, a clearance may be granted.

I have received your letter of the 4th instant, stating that you have drawn a draft for the purpose of returning to Sweden, but that the Collector of the customs conceived that the existing embargo laws forbid, to permit you to clear out; and in consequence of which you have declined drawing the draft. April 2[d] 1813.

Sir,

Major Tenant, the owner of the Brutus, a vessel taken lately in the Bay, on a voyage from France, richly laden with French goods, is desirous of going on board admiral Warren's ship, to inquire into the state of health of the captain and crew, to obtain their discharge if possible, and to confer with the admiral respecting the ransom of his vessel and cargo. Should the admiral agree to the ransom of vessel and cargo, the President is disposed to allow it, the whole transaction passing under the view of an officer of the army by a flag. The sole ostensible object of his visit, will be to make the ~~fi~~ inquiry first above mentioned. For this pur-hope a flag will be necessary. It has occurred that it may be in yours, or Col. Barclay's power to furnish a notice for it, without the immediate agency of this Department If so, you will have the goodness to take this necessary measures for this purpose, in concert with major Tennant, after which the order will be given to the commanding officer at Baltimore to carry it into effect.

my reason for not taking out the mail was because the vessel had her Guns &c in the bottom of the vessel, and by taking out the Mail which the Capt. was very desirous I should do. her character would become changed, provided she had no return Mail, he could on leaving the Port of New York mount his Guns

Mr Baker the English Secretary of legation has not been here, nor is not expected to go to England in the Frances Ewing It was intended that the Frances Ewing should stop at Bermuda when she left her Ammunition but Mr Morrow assures me that if the Government of the United States have dispatches they wish sent to England direct he will order Captain Bell to proceed there, without stoping at Bermuda or at any other place on receiving from you passports to protect him from our Ships of War and privateers

Sir,

Captain Bell, commander of the British Flag of Truce, Francis Freeling, now at Anchor in this Harbour, in compliance with the orders of John Randal Esquire, Collector of the Port of Annapolis, gave into his possession the Passport received at Bermuda from Rear Admiral Cockburn. Mr. Randal having forwarded the same to the Office of the Dept. of State, have to request that you will be pleased to return it under cover to me, together with such other Passport as the President of the United States, or Secretary of State may be pleased to grant for the protection of the Flag against American Vessels of War.

Understanding from the Collector that the Honorable James Monroe wished to know whether the Francis Freeling was to touch at Bermuda on her way to England. I desired Mr. Randal to present my respects to the Secretary of State, & say, that if the President of the United States has any wish that the Brig should proceed to England direct, that I will give orders to Captain Bell to do so, notwithstanding his warlike Stores were landed at Bermuda - which I beg you to repeat. I will thank you to add that Captain Bell is in readiness to proceed to Sea & only waits the pleasure of the President of the United States.-

Respectfully represents, the Subscriber of Portland in the State of Massachusetts that he wishes for permission to send a Cartel from Portland or Boston to Liverpool the good staunch American Brig Joel Dickinson of the burthen of one hundred & forty eight Tons and 92 feet - five years old and in every respect well fitted and found for such a voyage.

As no Cartel has been sent during the war from this section of the Country it is believed that it would prove an accommodation to many of our merchants who are desirous of sending Letters. There are frequently of war in prize Ships arriving here and many now arrived ready to be exchanged or receipted for. This vessel is well calculated to accomodate at least One hundred passengers.

Memorial of Thomas Tennant, Baltimore, January 16. 1813 — asks permission to send a cartel to Bermuda.

To the Honourable the President of the United States.

The memorial of the subscriber, a citizen of the United States, and a resident merchant in the city of Baltimore, respectfully sheweth,

That your memorialist is the owner of the Brig or Vessel called the Herald, that was captured on the twenty fifth of December last, on the American Coast by a British Squadron, being then in the prosecution of a voyage from Bordeaux in France to the port of Baltimore aforesaid.

Your memorialist represents, That the said Brig, together with the Officers and crew belonging to her have been sent to Bermuda, where it is presumed they have already arrived. Your memorialist represents that the Captain of the said Vessel, and several of the Officers and crew have families and connexions in Baltimore who are extremely anxious to procure their liberation as soon as practicable.

That your memorialist yielding to their solicitude, and desirous to promote the freedom of those who have lost their liberties in his service has consented to despatch a vessel to Bermuda for the purpose of bringing home the Officers and Crew of the said vessel, if the requisite permission can be obtained.

(Your memorialist begs leave further to state), that there are several Prisoners of War now in the port of Baltimore, belonging to the Island of Bermuda, who might also be sent back to their Homes in the same Vessel; that should this be dispatched in consequence of the permission of your Excellency.

He therefore prays your Excellency that permission may be granted to him to dispatch a Vessel in the character of a Cartel, to accomplish the objects above set forth; and your memorialist ever duty bound will pray &c

The Letter

Jan. 18. 1813.

The inclosed Passports are sent to you to be delivered to the Collector of the Customs for the benefit for of the Parties concerned provided on consultation you find that the Vessels for which they are respectively intended are fairly entitled to them. It had been supposed that at these Ports were libelled in the District Court for the District of Georgia that a Judicial decision would have been had on each case. As this however has not been done the Passports have been made out to meet the Contingency of the Vessels being released by the Court or until they are released the President is of opinion that he cannot with propriety give them Passports. — would he have had those which are now sent to you made out had such been for an intimation from the Judge of the Court that he thought the Vessels were entitled to them under the act

NEWPORT.

THURSDAY, NOVEMBER 25, 1813.

We have been favored with the following statement by Capt. Myers, of the American cartel ship Jenny, which arrived at this port on Sunday last; it will serve to shew the manner in which these cartels are treated by the Government of Great Britain.

"The American ship Jenny, sailed from Dartmouth, Eng. as a cartel, with prisoners on board, destined for this place; but having on her passage met with tempestuous weather, was compelled to make the first port possible, which was St. John's, Newfoundland. On her arrival at that port, some of the prisoners being infected with the Small Pox, the Governor at the solicitation of the inhabitants compelled Capt. Myers to procure another vessel, and despatch the prisoners without loss of time, fearing that their remaining might spread the infection;—assuring him at the same time that as soon as the prisoners should quit the place every assistance in his power should be rendered to facilitate the departure, and this promise of assistance was also made by some of the principal merchants of the place, who assured him of their assistance. After the departure of the hired cartel, Capt. Myers' ship was kept under quarantine fourteen days, and no person permitted to come on board, although the ship had been cleansed and rendered perfectly free from infection. Thus the ship was prevented from being put in readiness, and the season fast approaching when tempestuous weather might be expected on this difficult coast—and when he could no longer deny the ship being admitted to Pratique—the frivilous pretence of fear of spreading infection was resorted to. Capt. Myers made application to those merchants who had tendered him their assistance; but, to his utter astonishment, they refused to lend him the least aid, and he experienced the like inhumane treatment from Sir Richard Goodwin Keats, the Admiral and Governor of the place, who evinced the most cool indifference on the affair, informing Captain Myers that Mr. Madison had adopted the French system of carrying on the war, and he was therefore of opinion that the English government ought to practice the same manner of treatment towards the citizens of the United States, notwithstanding the nature of the flag which the ship bore. He had after the departure of the prisoners, allowed the ship to be hauled to the King's wharf, (which is remote from the town) to prevent her sinking; but previous to her commencing to refit he ordered her away, leaving Capt. Myers to seek what place he chose to heave the ship down; and as he was destitute of friends and money, he could remove to no other proper place as it would necessarily increase expenses. After the most humiliating requests he finally obtained a lighter from the Kings yard; and some American prisoners then at St. Johns, the ships company having previously abandoned her. With these few men and the lighter, Capt. Myers hove his ship down, and stopt the leak as well as possible: To defray the expenses which must necessarily accrue, he was obliged to sell all his moveables, which was possible to be converted into money. After having surmounted innumerable difficulties the ship was again put in readiness for sea.—The Admiral had, in the first instance, given Capt. Myers encouragement to suppose he would allow him to take American prisoners with him to navigate the ship, to be accounted for in regular exchange. But after she was in readiness he refused this, and threw every obstacle, in his power, in the way of the ship's departure, even delaying giving Capt. Myers his passport for several days after he had made application for it; thus the ship was detained for several weeks, when with his assistance she might have been expedited in a few days, and this without incommodating him in the least; the ship was finally compelled to go to sea and encounter the perils of a winters coast. To these delays he cannot but attribute the disasters he has met with on his passage home—short manned and in a distressed situation.—Capt. Myers, however, notwithstanding the inhospitable treatment he met with from every one else, has to acknowledge the important and friendly assistance he received from Captain Palmer, of the Pheasant, sloop of war, who sent his carpenters to lend their assistance in fishing his masts, and in other respects was kind enough to render much assistance."

The treatment of Capt. Myers, exhibits a striking contrast to that of Capt. Forbes of the British cartel ship Hawke, which lately sailed from this port. Capt. Forbes himself acknowledged that he had received every mark of polite attention, and was furnished with supplies of every kind in abundance for her return passage. This is only one of almost numberless instances of the same kind.

We are informed by several gentlemen residing here, who have a more general acquaintance with foreigners in our country, than ourselves and who feel disposed to promote our interests that there are a number among us who are desirous of obtaining passports to a port in Europe and that it is probable if we could obtain permission for a Cartel we could readily find such a number of applicants as would make it an object to equip a vessel only as a ship we have had laying unemployed since the commencement of the war. We therefore take the liberty of making application to you for Permission to send out as a Cartel, the Ship John Willis of 330 Tons burthen, a sound & copper fastened vessel, to be commanded by Samuel Dayton of this City, to the ports of Gothenburg in Sweden as the Government may choose - but would more particularly state for their information that a prospect of an bargaining a little by this privilege and that small it would be useful to us whereupon we hope, if such a permission could be granted you will have the goodness to

The Undersigned respectfully makes known to the Hon.ble the Secretary of State that the health & probably the very existence of a beloved Wife makes it necessary for her to take a Sea voyage, and that the most eminent of the Faculty have directed her if possible to be taken to the South of France. For this purpose your Petitioner requests permission from his Government to apply to the Admiral commanding the Enemy's fleet on our Coast for a protection for a Ship of his own, immediately to proceed in ballast as a Cartel for a port in France. His object in wishing to go in his own Ship is not with a view to profit, but that he may appropriate the Cabin to the sole & entire convenience of his family, whose health is such as to require every possible accommodation.

He also requests (as the expences attending such a voyage in his Ship in ballast will be very heavy) permission to bear a flag of truce & to sail with all convenient dispatch as a Cartel with permission to take in his Ship not exceeding forty passengers in addition to his own family such as may be permitted to leave the Country with the approbation of its Government. He also respectfully offers his Services as Bearer of any dispatches which his Government may think proper to entrust him with. For the faithful care & delivery of which such security shall be given as may be required of him.

Dr Sir,

It is with much regret, that I trouble you again, on the subject of a Letter, which I had the Honor of writing to you about some weeks since. My extreme solicitude and anxiety for the return of my family home must plead as an apology - you are a husband and a father; you will therefore know what my feelings are upon such a subject - I know of no possible means of getting them home in any other way - By that means I could get them home free of expence, which to me whose pecuniary concerns are very limited indeed - is of very serious import - I therefore beg leave to solicit your friendly influence with the President, to endeavour to obtain for me a passport and other Officers, that which is essential to his happiness, the return of his wife and children to their homes ——

I am with all possible respect

His Excellency James Madison

Sir

I had contemplated with heart-felt pleasure the arival of my family in the United States from G. Britain in the Month of November next, for which arrangements had been made — But as by the circumstances attending on a state of war between these countries, this cannot take place; and impelled by those attachments which are Stronger than death to endeavour to be reunited to them and enjoy their Society, and also by motives of private pecuniary interest, I have determined to return to them by the first Suitable opportunity: I have therefore taken the liberty to solicit of you the favour of your permission, and the protection of the United States to cover a small vessel belonging to this port to be cleared out from hence to Bermuda, New Providence, or Jamaica; or to a british port on this continent —

Altho I am very little acquainted with the rights of war or the usages of nations in respect to these matters, yet believing that this request is not unreasonable, nor, as I am informed, unusual, and the result of it to me, of equal importance as is life, I indulge a hope that you will have the goodness to direct the protection prayed for to be extended to me; and if so, as early as can comport with convenience; thus affording me the power of shortening a period of great anxiety, and probably of avoiding much pecuniary injury to my family — I beg you, if it be not inconsistent with the good policy of this country, to favour my petition, and accept of those due sentiments of respectful and high estimation which shall ever actuate

Your Excellency's Mot. Obedient Servant

I respectfully submit to your attention the within petition to His Excellency the President, in a confidence that you will have the goodness to lay it before him, and cause to be forwarded to me the protection prayed for, if it be consistent with the good policy and usage of this country — With sentiments of due respect and high consideration

Sir. The undersigned principal owner of the Ship Homer, did in February last appoint Richard King Porter, master of said Ship with full power & charter or take freight for said Ship. And on the 10th of March the said Master agreeably to his instructions chartered this Ship to Mr. E Brown of Philadelphia as agent for Idle, Brothers & Co & James Brown of London, to take a cargo of timber for their use & risk to England. I have now had an interview with Mr E Brown, and on proposing to discharge this cargo in the docks at Bath Mr Brown objects on the ground that the sixth section of an act of congress passed the 6th of this month authorises the President to give permission for the safe transportation of this cargo from the United States to Great Britain. If Sir the act above mentioned, contemplate the removal of property of this description,

I respectfully request you to point out the mode in which it must be effected, and whether this ship will be safe from British seizure — It is of importance to me to have a speedy Decision on this subject as the ship will in a short time be greatly injured with the heat generated by the Cargo.

Sir,

I have been solicited to recal to yr. recollection, should you have forgotten it, the application made to your department, in behalf of the Schroner Industry, as a cartel; and at the same time to state, that within my own knowledge the parties who owned the vessel at the time of capture, and who are about to return in her to their disconsolate families are really objects of charity. — My situation as a Commissioner of the District Court of the United States for the Examination of Witnesses, has enabled me to ascertain the fact under the oath of the prisoners; one of them, an old lady, is now exceedingly unwell; a boisterous season is approaching, and unless they can very soon depart, the hope, in their miserable, shattered vessel of ever reaching their destined port, would be vain & illusory. —

I have to offer an apology, which I trust you will find in the necessity of the case, for thus intruding myself upon your time

Peter B Arnesby, now in the City of New York, as well as several other citizens are desirous to go to Europe— The Vessel destined to Gottenburg is so very small and very way inconvenient as to preclude an Idea of their taking a passage in her.

Those Gent.n would Charter a Vessel and carry any Mssge or Messenger the Govern.t might find necessary to send to Europe— provided that in the event of an adjustment of our differences with G Britain they are permitted to load the Vessel back to the U States, on their own account. An answer to this proposition would be gratifying to those Gent. I have the honor to be very respectfully your obed.t servt

Philad.a December 28.th 1813

Honored Sir,

I address you, confiding in your generosity Justice and candour, to state the hardships of a case in which I am, (a native born citizen of the United States) deeply concerned. Having nearly lost my all, by shipments, and the proceeds of what remained being in Charleston, the safe return of which to this city would partly remunerate me for these losses, I purchased the Sloop Polly Captain Carr, and freighted her for South Carolina, with rum, beer, paper, brushes, confectionary &c. all articles of a perishable nature, and belonging to citizens of the United States. The sloop, having no more than the necessary provisions, was cleared out in the 17.th inst. and while at anchor below at Gloucester, was run on board by a shallop. She was obliged to return for repairs and now lies detained by the embargo, from which circumstance my situation is peculiarly hard. The sloop is of 18 tons burthen only, and as may be seen by the manifest, has no articles of any kind, but those above mentioned, on board. To have my proceeds forwarded by land, would be but additional loss, and I write to you, my dear sir, to beg of you to take my case into your consideration, and to issue your orders to the customs here, that my vessel may be permitted to proceed on her destined voyage eastwise, without delay.

I am convinced, sir, your liberal nature will immediately perceive the hardship of my situation, & when I assure you that any security will be given, not to evade the law or defraud the revenue, I trust you will grant my request.

I need not say, sir, that your compliance, and an early answer to this letter will confer a lasting obligation upon a native citizen of Philadelphia, and one who has the honour to be with the highest consideration and esteem,

Your obd.t humble Servant
(Thomas Hurst)

Collectors Office Port of Philadelphia
June, 28, 1813.

At the request of the writer of the foregoing letter, I confirm the statement, relative to the Sloop Polly owned by him, and of the clearance of vessels to Charleston should he deem it expedient, I believe that the applicant will make no improper use of the permission if granted.

Baltimore, December 29th 1813.

Sir

Previous to my having any knowledge of the embargo, I had concluded the chartering of the american ship Union of Baltimore now lying at Newyork, for a voyage to Charleston & thence to France, with a full Cargo of cotton.

The law of the embargo, now prevents the carrying of the aforesaid voyage into execution; but having still engagements to fulfil towards the owners of the ship, I have proposed to employ the said Vessel to carry passengers to France, if permission

Can

Can be obtained from Government.

This is the favor which I am now, to solicit. As it is doubtful whether a sufficient number of passengers can be obtained: the only way to get some compensation for the Expenditure would be to obtain, at the same time, permission to take on board as ballast about one hundred & fifty tons of Pot & Pearl ashes. These articles being of small importance and not among the number of those which gave rise to the Embargo Law, I flatter myself that my Request may be granted.

With great Respect

To the Honble James Monroe

Sir,

I beg leave to forward this now, to the President of the United States, my petition praying that a flag ship may be granted for the Ship Alcedo to take passengers to the West Indies- also the certificate of the collector of the Port and that of Mr Wallace. I made a similar application a few weeks ago, but it was not granted. Now that the great Question is determined upon, of going to war with Great Britain. I presume it may not be thought amiss, that I renew my application as the necessities of individuals, who desire to return to their homes, must be the more pressing, with respect to private views, which I may have of giving orders respecting the disposal of property in the West Indies- this reminder as necessary If an answer to my request, could be obtained without delay, thro you- it would be conferring a great obligation on Sir.

Phila.a 19th Sept 1812

James Monroe Secy. of State,

Sir

I have myself the honor to address you on the 12th Inst. requesting passports for the Passengers of the Ship Hudora; a particular list of whom I sent inclosed — but not having yet received them and my vessel being now near the time of her departure, which is fixed upon for Sunday 22d Inst. I have to request you Sir, and pray that you would have the goodness to forward them as soon (if not already done) as will consist with your more urgent occasions. The apprehension that something has been wrong in my mode of application induces me now to add another list of my passengers, and also mention that the daily expences of my vessel are now from 30 to 40 Dollars. I am with great respect

Your most

Obed.
