

FRONTIER ARMY MUSEUM

HISTORY HUNT

JUNIOR HIGH

Fort Leavenworth Gallery

Which American artist painted the three realism murals that depict 19th century frontier and military life?

Hint: Look for mural pictured here

*Hint: Look along the hallway graphics
(Image: Dragoon officer belt buckle, ca 1833)*

Front Hallway

What were the “Dragoons”, and how were they involved in the westward expansion of the United States and the fortification of Fort Leavenworth?

Beyond Lewis & Clark

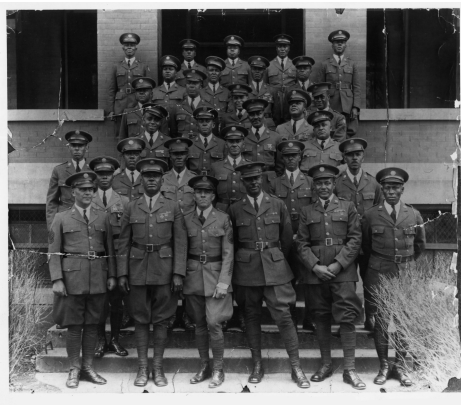

Which President ordered the Lewis and Clark Expedition? What did the expedition accomplish?

Name at least 2 types of mapping technologies available to Lewis and Clark during their expedition.

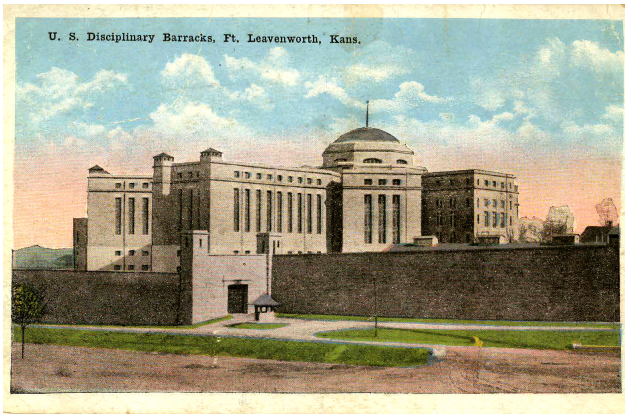

Campaign Gallery

What was the name of the trail used to supply Mexico with manufactured goods after the country gained its independence from Spain in 1821?

What nickname was given to the all African-American regiments (9th and 10th cavalry, 24th and 25th infantry)?

*Hint: The regiments were named after a Great Plains animal
Image: 10th Cavalry, early 1900s*

Hint: Look for the red cart in this gallery

Vehicle Exhibits

In 1881, Alman M. Granger patented the soda acid fire extinguisher. The United States Disciplinary (USDB) utilized these extinguishers with a man-pulled cart. What were the two chemicals that composed the extinguisher?

Punitive Expedition

Name 2 benefits to the invention and adaption of smokeless ammunition.

1. _____

2. _____

Personality Vehicles

Large freight wagons could haul 3-5 tons of merchandise, supplies, and equipment. How many mules or oxen were needed to pull these massive wagons?

What is the name of the oil painting depicting Frontier Army families circa 1840, painted by Ernst Ulmer?

Hint: Look for the painting pictured above